"Our innovative business model allows investors to stay away from crowded market segments, thus offering a superior risk-return profile. At the same time, we have succeeded in accelerating the growth of highly talented specialised managers, helping them to build their franchise, attract top talents and scale their business."

"2022 has been a busy year across all asset classes: private credit with a focus on the dislocated parts of the European market such as venture debt, mid-market structured corporate financing and entertainment lending; in private equity we have further invested in the Swiss mid-market through our subsidiary DECALIA Capital, as well as maintaining a global exposure to the sector through a long dated successful co-investment program; as per real estate, we have further grown our Swiss logistics focused evergreen strategy."
